The following is to explain your rights and give you the information you are be entitled to under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Note that this section only refers to your personal data (your name, address and anything that could be used to identify you personally).

1. The identity of the data controller and contact details of our Data Protection Officer

The United Kingdom Debt Management Office (UK DMO) is the data controller. The Data Protection Officer can be contacted at dataprotection@dmo.gov.uk

2. Why we are collecting your personal data

Your personal data is being collected as an essential part of the service we provide, so that we can contact you regarding your response and for statistical purposes. We may also use it to contact you about related matters.

3. Our legal basis for processing your personal data

The GDPR states at Article 6(1)(e) that processing necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller is a sufficient legal basis.

4. With whom we will be sharing your personal data

The data we collect may be shared with relevant staff in other government departments, agencies and public bodies.

5. For how long we will keep your personal data, or criteria used to determine the retention period.

Data provided for authorisation purposes is held until it is superseded by a new instruction. Data relating to a loan application is held for six years after the loan maturity date.

6. Your rights, e.g. access, rectification, erasure

The data we are collecting is your personal data, and you have considerable say over what happens to it. You have the right:

- a. to see what data we have about you
- b. to ask us to stop using your data, but keep it on record
- c. to have all or some of your data corrected if it is inaccurate or incomplete
- d. to lodge a complaint with the independent Information Commissioner (ICO) if you think we are not handling your data fairly or in accordance with the law. You can contact the ICO at <https://ico.org.uk/>, or telephone 0303 123 1113.

7. Your personal data will be maintained in secured government IT systems here in the UK

From time to time it may be necessary for personal data to be sent overseas to ensure our systems are working appropriately. Your data will only be transferred overseas temporarily and only where equivalent safeguards are in place and when absolutely necessary.

8. Your personal data will not be used for any automated decision making.

9. Further information regarding the rights of individuals under GDPR can be found on the DMO website at <https://www.dmo.gov.uk/terms-of-use/privacy-notice/>
