

DMO screen announcement

Gilt mini-tender

Following a recent informal consultation with market participants, the DMO is announcing today that it currently plans to schedule a gilt mini-tender in the second half of September 2014.

The DMO will consult market participants again nearer that time regarding the identity of the gilt to be sold and more specific timing of the operation.

12 August 2014